St. Michaels is a picturesque harbor on Maryland's Eastern Shore and was named as one of the Top 10 Best Small Coastal Towns in America by USA Today. Its harbor and some homes date back to the mid-1600's, and it is home to the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum where you can immerse yourself in maritime history. The St. Michaels area is perfect for outdoor activities including sailing on historic Skipjacks, golfing, and bicycling; and it is also known for exceptional restaurants, from quaint romantic bistros to waterfront restaurants, serving fresh seafood including the best tasting crab cakes! For shoppers, you will find an eclectic range of boutique shops offering specialty foods, jewelry, clothing, home décor and art galleries throughout the town. Come and experience the beauty of St. Michaels and all this charming town has to offer! Trip will take place rain or shine and meals are on your own in town.

Penn's Peak – "Live at the Sands: Frank, Dean, & Sammy"

Thursday, October 19, 2017

Cost: $67.00

Departs: 9:15am

Contact: Ann McClay

Once more traveling to Penn's Peak to enjoy excellent food and music with this performance of "Live at the Sands: Frank, Dean, and Sammy." Be dazzled and transported back to Sinatra's sun-kissed world of wine, women, and song. When Michael Dutra performs with his full ensemble, you'll swear Dean Martin and Sammy Davis Jr. are in the room! It's the Swinging Sixties all over again as the guys trade stage patter and perform the Live at the Sands: Frank, Dean and Sammy's biggest hits. Relive the chemistry of comedy and song that these three iconic performers brought to the stage! As with all of our trips to Penn's Peak, lunch and show are included in the price; and a cash bar is available. Please respond by Saturday, September 30 to reserve your seat!

Franklin Institute – Terracotta Warriors

Tuesday, November 14, 2017

Cost: $45.00 + Lunch

Leaves at: 8:30am

Contact: Priscilla Burt

An army of over 8,000 terracotta statues stood guard over the tomb of China's first emperor for over 2,000 years before being discovered by a farmer in 1974. Now, these warriors come to the Franklin Institute for the only east-coast engagement. Featuring 9 of the warriors and 1 terracotta horse statue, this historic visit is unlike anything you have seen before. The Mysteries of China will also be seen in IMAX, starting with modern China and springing back to birth of the mighty nation. Lunch is on your own at Franklin Foodworks.

American Music Theatre – “Home for the Holidays”

Wednesday, November 29, 2017

Cost: $69.00

Departs: 11:15am

Contact: B.J. VanSchooneveld

Inspired by warm memories of family Christmases together, “Home for the Holidays” celebrates the joys and merriment of spending the holidays with the ones we love. The show's setting takes place on a festive Christmas Eve and features many of the beloved traditions we look forward to each year, with a special visit from Santa. This live musical experience will feature some of your favorite sacred and secular holiday songs, superb musical arrangements, outstanding singing and dancing, and the incredible sounds of the AMT Orchestra. Come celebrate the wonder, warmth, and magic of the season as we go “home for the holidays” with a show guaranteed to leave you in the Christmas Spirit! A Shady Maple Smorgasbord lunch, enjoyed prior to the show, is included in the price.
