Little Voice (2014, R) On Monday, December 16th at 7:00 p.m. in the Main Room of the Community Center, we will present the award winning film, "Little Voice" starring Michael Caine, Jane Horrocks, Brenda Blethyn and Ewan McGregor. Set in a backwater northern English town, the film centers on Laura, a very shy young woman called "Little Voice" because of her soft speaking voice and quiet ways. She spends endless hours in her bedroom above the record store once owned by her late father, listening to, and imitating the tunes of classic song stylists like Billie Holiday, Judy Garland and Marilyn Monroe – songs that she and her father both loved. When her tarty mother brings home a new boyfriend (Michael Caine), a washed-up talent agent, he hears Little Voice singing and becomes determined, despite her shyness, to book her into a local club and make her a star. Great performances all around in this bittersweet comedy drama, but the standout is Jane Horrocks, whose ability to mimic the great female singers of the past is nothing sort of astonishing. Come and be amazed.
